

Find Love Safely

FOR ORGANIZATIONS

Healthy Relationships Presentation

This interactive presentation is designed specifically for adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities who want to better understand how relationships work and how to build connections that are respectful, safe, and meaningful.

- Clear, practical education on what healthy relationships look like across acquaintances, friendships, and romantic relationships.
- Reinforces that every person deserves dignity, autonomy, and respect.
- Led by experienced facilitators who understand the IDD community.
- Available virtually nationwide or in person where available.
